Teresa Wilberscheid named library head

Teresa Wilberscheid, who has been the interim library director for 10 months, was officially named to the head position on May 10.

Among her duties are overseeing all functions of the library including staffing, collection development, budget, etc.

Wilberscheid, has been working for the city for six years, started as a part-time children's assistant.

She moved to the Young Adult area, then cataloguing and then to the interim director.

"Teresa was the best choice for the job, given her experience and longevity with the library," said Library Board Chairman Donna Bebout. "She's come a long way since her part-time days and we're thrilled that she's made the move up the ladder to the director's position."

Seniors enjoy senior prom

*This year's theme was
"A Star is Born."*

Roy Waldron wins $25K

Roy Waldron School, located at 125 Floyd Mayfield Drive, has won $25,000 in the Pepsi Refresh Project. The contest — originally slated to end March 31 — was extended to the end of April.

The school finished in eighth place. The funds will be used to construct a new, larger playground for the second- through fifth-grade students.

Thanks to everyone who voted for the school and this project.

Our sympathy goes to:

Gloria January, whose mother Joyce Jernagan, passed away in May.

Seniors host bean luncheon to raise money for existing building fund

The Seniors hosted a bean luncheon on April 28 to raise money for their building fund.

This is just one of the many fund-raisers that the seniors host each year. They are currently in the process of taking over the rest of the building, previously occupied by the police department. They will extend their building to help house more than 50 seniors who attend their daily activities.
